- Satisfy the bonding requirements of the Credit Union.
- Agree to and abide by the terms of OCCU's Officials Standards of Ethical Conduct (Policy 2.6).
- Be committed to fulfilling the time requirements necessary as an active Supervisory Committee member (generally 15-20 hours per month).
- Be eligible to vote in OCCU elections and at membership meetings.
- Not be employed by the Credit Union, any other financial institution, or any subsidiary thereof during the past two (2) years.
- Disclose conflicts of interest as defined by State and Federal Regulations and abstain from voting on matters which may involve a conflict of interest.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

- The Supervisory Committee shall make or cause to be made a comprehensive annual audit of the books and affairs of the Credit Union and shall submit a report of the audit to the Board of Directors ("Board") and the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services ("DCBS") and provide a summary of that report to the members at the next annual meeting of the Credit Union. It shall make or cause to be made such supplementary audits or examinations as it deems necessary or as are required by the DCBS Director or the Board and submit reports of supplementary audits to the Board.
- The Supervisory Committee shall cause the accounts of the members to be verified with the records of the Credit Union from time to time in accordance with this section. This verification shall be done no less frequently than every two (2) years.
- Verification of members' accounts shall be made using either of the following methods: (a) a controlled verification of 100 percent of members' share and loan accounts; or (b) a controlled random statistical sampling method in accordance with rules that the DCBS Director may prescribe.
- Records of accounts verified shall be maintained and retained until the next verification of members' accounts is completed.
- Serve as a Credit Union ambassador.
