Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Oregon Community Credit Union (OCCU) and OCCU Insurance Services, LLC

What we do

How does OCCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

All employees and agents are trained and expected to follow all privacy and safeguard controls in order to protect members' privacy.

How does OCCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or open an account
- deposit money or give us your contact information
- use your credit card or debit card

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Online Banking

- Certain features (such as payment services) of your MyOCCU Online & Mobile need to access your device's contacts in order to complete transactions efficiently.
- In addition, certain features require access to your camera (for facial recognition or for mobile deposit). Collection of images of checks on our mobile application enables you to deposit funds remotely. The images are used to process deposits and display the image in your transaction history.
- In addition, MyOCCU Online & Mobile also may periodically collect, transmit, and use geolocation information to support features that prevent fraudulent card use and alerts, but only if you expressly authorize collection of such information. OCCU does not share these images. You may choose whether geolocation information can be monitored on a continuous basis in the background, only while the app is being used, or not at all. You can change these permissions at any time in your device settings.
